Whether you are approaching from Port Ellen or Port Askaig, head for Bridgend. On the outskirts take A847 for Port Charlotte and Portnahaven.

5 miles after leaving Bridgend, Sanaigmore and Kilchoman are sign posted to the right (B8108). (This is before Bruichladdich)

Proceed straight on approximately a 10 minute drive. About 0.5 mile after the entrance to Rockside Farm Trekking Centre, and the Kilchoman Distillery, turn left past the row of former Coastguard houses.

Carry on up to the top of the hill and just past the ruin of Kilchoman Church, you will find the main gates.

Proceed across the cattle grid and come down to Kilchoman House at the foot of the drive where we will be waiting to meet you on your arrival and show you to your cottage.

Kilchoman House Cottage are situated within their own grounds on the West coast of Islay, close to a mile long sandy beach. The cottages are surrounded by farmland and approached through the famous Machir on fully tarmac roads.
